

Media Reviews

“Johnny is a new jazz star on the tenor saxophone scene”

- Queenstown Jazz Festival

“A most passionate and soulful performer”

- Jazz Times

“A fierce Saxman, of international repute...”

- Evening Post NZ

“...outstanding improvised jazz.”

- Wellington Jazz club

“Funky! This is an outstanding release for Wellington-based British saxophonist Johnny Lippet and his band. The nine groove-filled tracks were recorded at Massey University this year and feature some very tasty playing indeed. Although all funky, a lot of terrain is covered, including electric jazz and reggae. ..just gets better and better with repeated listening – and I loved it the first time! Highly recommended.

- NZ Musician Magazine [about Backbeat Project], Jan 04

“Blows with a burning Authority – like Huka Falls with the gates open!”

- Dominion NZ